Parallels Access: terms of use

- Parallels Access

Please note that Parallels Access is discontinued as of March 5, 2024, and will no longer be available for purchase or renewal after this date. Parallels will support existing subscriptions until April 30, 2024. If you have Parallels Access as a free bonus software for purchasing a Parallels Desktop license, please note that Parallels Access will no longer be available for activation as part of your Parallels Desktop license as of March 5, 2024

Please note, after April 30, 2024, Parallels Access will no longer receive support and you will no longer be able to use Parallels Access in any environment. Learn more in KB 130090.

Parallels offers a free trial period for Parallels Access. The trial period lasts for 14 days and cannot be extended. The trial period starts when you install the Parallels Access agent and connect to the Parallels Access server for the first time.

A subscription can be purchased from the App Store or Parallels Access page of a Parallels account at any time during or after the trial period. You can buy a 1-year subscription at the App Store or choose between subscriptions for 1 and 2 years, if you purchase it from your Parallels account.

See article #116724 for more information on purchase of Parallels Access.

If you would like to buy a new subscription before your current subscription expires, please note that it is only possible if your current subscription is non-renewable, and if you place an order from your Parallels account. See article #116725 for more information on auto-renewal for a Parallels Access subscription.

A Parallels Access subscription is valid for one Parallels Access account and allows connecting up to 5 remote computers.
