

Can I connect to remote computer which uses Proxy?

- Parallels Access

Question

- I have a PC/Mac computer which uses proxy server for Internet access. Is it possible to configure Parallels Access to connect to my computer?

Answer

Currently it is not possible to establish connection if proxy server is used for Internet access on any side (mobile device or remote computer). Parallels Access Development team is aware about this and working on this matter.

Related articles

- What network ports should be open to ensure stable connection for Parallels Access?
 - Manual NAT configuration
-

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.