

Unable to start published application on Linux client: Unable to get local issuer certificate

- Parallels Remote Application Server

Symptoms

Unable to start published application on Linux or Raspberry Pi client: Unable to get local issuer certificate:

Cause

RDS server is using self-signed authentication certificate.

Resolution

Configure Parallels Client to accept self-signed certificate:

- in Connection Properties switch to Authentication tab and set If authentication fails option to Connect:

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.