Service 'RAS Reporting Engine' failed to start

- Parallels Remote Application Server

Symptoms

During the installation of RAS Reporting following error message is displayed:

Cause

Various Microsoft .Net components require Internet connection in order to start reporting services

Resolution

Enable Internet connection on the SQL Server during installation process. Configuring Web Proxy temporary to complete the installation is also fine.

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.