

How to submit a ticket to Parallels Support for Remote Application Server?

- Parallels Remote Application Server

Information

In order to submit a support request please sign into Parallels Business Account here: Parallels My Account.

After authorization, you will see the list of registered Parallels products. Please follow the steps described below:

1. In order to submit a new request please select appropriate Business account using arrow button:
2. Click on Support button near the Remote Application Server product or on the right bottom corner of the page:

3. Next please choose issue category:

4. Please briefly describe the issue.

The system will automatically provide you will a number of possible solutions. If provided solutions have not solved the issue, please click on Request Support:

5. Choose a convenient way for communications:

6. On the next pop-up form please choose the exact version of the product, leave your contact details and issue description:

7. Once done you will be informed that ticket has been created and also you will receive confirmation to your e-mail:

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.