

How to manually install Parallels Remote Application Server components

- Parallels Remote Application Server

Information

To manually install Parallels Remote Application Server components, please perform the steps below:

1. Download Remote Application Server installer

Note: You need to use the same build, as the current Remote Application Server installation.

2. Launch Remote Application Server installer.
 3. Chose Custom type of installation
 4. Select Remote Application Server components you want to install.
 5. Click Next and proceed with installation.
-

© 2025 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.