

How to define a custom homepage for a published browser

• Parallels Remote Application Server

Information

In order to set a published browser to open on a pre-defined homepage, a URL to the desired page has to be specified in Parameters field of publishing settings:

trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.	