Reverse proxied web application just showing regular workspace

- Parallels Secure Workspace

Symptoms

A new reverse-proxied web application has just been configured.

When browsing to the FQDN, the user ends up on the Workspace instead.

Cause

Especially when HTTPS is enforced or used: make sure a certificate has been generated for this host header.

Resolution

Navigate to System Settings > Global > Certificates and add a valid certificate.

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.