External audit logging

- Parallels Secure Workspace

Resolution

It's possible to forward the audit logs to an external logging system, such as Splunk.

Parallels Secure Workspace allows you to forward all audit logs to an external system using the HTTP(S) protocol. Each record will be transmitted to the configured URL using an HTTP POST request per record in JSON format.

For details on the structure, consult the Admin Manual - section "External audit logging".
