

Is it possible to restrict the API?

- Parallels Secure Workspace

Resolution

It's not possible to restrict the API. Certain API calls can be done by anyone (unauthenticated); while others require prior authentication for successful execution.

The API is also used when using the Workspace, System Settings, or the Dashboard.

So it is not possible to restrict this further.

© 2024 Parallels International GmbH. All rights reserved. Parallels, the Parallels logo and Parallels Desktop are registered trademarks of Parallels International GmbH. All other product and company names and logos are the trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective owners.